SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 2nd.

Prayer meeting conducted by Jas. White, preaching at 11 by Rev. J. B. Ferguson, text "Daniel 2nd chap., 44th v." At this hour a very large congregation had assembled in the shade near the church where they were furnished with seats, and judging from their undivided attention they were very much interested in the subject of Missions as it was presented to them. At the close of the sermon a public collection was taken, (for results see report on finance.) At 2 p. m. Bro. Etses of the Union Association delivered a sole thrilling discourse to a large and attentive concourse of people. At night Bro. Andrews gave us another excellent sermon all of which was patiently listened to, and we hope will accomplish much good in the future.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 3rd.

The body met at appointed time. Devotional exercises by the Moderator. Prayer by Rev. J. S. White.

Called for report of committee on arrangements which was adopted as follows: Your committee on arrangements would report. 1st. Read constitution, articles of faith and rules of decorum. 2nd. Call for reports on Sabbath Schools—Temperance—Missions—District meetings—Nominations—Documents—Religious Literature—Finance—Appoint a treasurer—Appoint standing committees, call for miscellaneous business. Respectfully submitted, J. B. Ferguson, chairman.

1st. Read constitution, articles of faith and rules of decorum.

2nd. Received and adopted report on Sabbath Schools as follows: Your committee on Sabbath Schools would report our Sabbath School convention last July at Corinth Church was a failure for lack of attendance. By inquiring of the delegates find that there are but five Baptist and one union

Sabbath Schools in our Association. If we believe Paul was correct when he said the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation, why will not Christian parents and church members teach their children and all others the Gospel which will make them wise unto salvation. This can be done more effectually in the Sabbath school than anywhere else. We would recommend that a Sabbath School be organized in each church, and that a Sabbath School convention be held in each district of the association during the coming year and each Sabbath School is requested to send delegates to their convention and the secretary of each Sabbath School send a full report of their school, the number of pupils; who are their officers &c., and the Sabbath School committee make a full report of all our Sabbath Schools to the next session of the Association. Brethren we should wake up to this important work. We are taught in the scripture; bring our children up in the way they should go. Respectfully submitted.

J. M. ASHCRAFT, Chairman.

By motion the regular order of business was suspended and brethren Zack Savage, W. W. Gravlee and J. Price were received as correspondents from the New River Association.

3rd. Received and adopted report on Temperance as follows, which was extensively discussed.

Your committee on Temperance report that from the best information that we have of intemperance and the mingling and commingling of the masses we are forced to the conclusion that temperance is rather retrograding and perhaps we are in no better condition now than we were one year ago though in some communities it is worse while in some it is better. We trust that the Christian people of this country and especially those of them who are enlisted in the great army of Temperance reform, may succeed grandly. We have great reason to congratulate ourselves upon the brilliant victories that have been won under the bright shining banner of Temperance not only within the borders of our own territory, but all over these United States; the cause of Temperance is on rising ground. We hope the time is not far distant when our families and our churches will be unmoled by the drunken reveling crowds that have heretofore disgraced our country and filled our courts with litigation. We notice a strong disposition on the part of persons who have heretofore indulged in strong drink to fall into line with the Temperance army. It is well said that the Temperance reform is a great revolution, and as revolutions never turn backward we have reasons to believe it will go on and on until the desire of our hearts will be accomplished. All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. J. PORTER, Chairman.

4th. The report on missions was read, discussed and adopted as follows:

DEAR BRETHREN: That it is the duty of Christians to give the gospel to the brethren is no longer a question demanding discussion. The increasing intelligence and wealth of Baptists make it no longer necessary to stimulate the liberty of the people by stirring appeals. The plain teaching of God's word from the pulpit, linked with that great power for good and strong arm of the church, the Sunday School, has made ready a people for the work of the Lord. Science applied has so increased the means of communicating with the outside world that there is no lack of knowledge as to the great need of the perishing millions of the earth's inhabitants, and the heathen are set down right at our doors. The systematic plans inaugurated by our leaders. Men chosen of the Lord, liberal and faithful, have so facilitated the ways of giving, that however urgent our business at home we may engage largely in the work of the Lord. Its needs only, that there be system in the individual churches. And just here we appeal to the deacons in all our churches to insist upon some regular and systematic plan by which every member will be led to give and thoroughly feel that they have an interest in the great work. My brethren let us not be Missionaries in name but in deed and in truth, let us show our faith by our works. Respectfully submitted.

JAS. MILLS JR., Chairman.

Adjourned one hour for refreshments; met according to adjournment, prayer by I. N. Ashcraft. Bro. H. Sullivant requested the body to excuse him from further attendance which was granted.

5th. Received reports of District meetings as follows: First District: The next session of this district will be held with Corinth Church Friday and Saturday before the 4th Sabbath in August 1893. Rev. J. B. Ferguson to preach the introductory sermon; Rev. I. L. Collins, alternate.

Queries for discussion: 1st. "How can the talents of all the church members be utilized for the advancement of the Christian religion," opened by L. Brown and R. Hocutt. 2nd. "What is the duty of Parents to Children and Children to Parents," opened by R. J. Mayfield and Jas. Mills Jr. 3rd. "Is our manner of administering and receiving the Communion according to the teaching of the Scriptures," opened by J. B. Ferguson and I. L. Collins. The District will hold an experience and communion exercise during its session. We recommend that the next session of the Association be held with Dunn's Creek Church.

JAMES WHITE, Chairman.

Having examined all the Documents placed in our hands find that there are six Sabbath Schools in this Association. There has been 29 baptised 13 received by letter and 3 restored. We find nothing more that demands your attention. Respectfully submitted.

G D MAYFIELD, Chairman.

8th. Received report on Religious Literature, as follows: Your committee on Literature, report that we recommend the Alabama Baptist to all of our people as an able and reliable, religious journal and would recommend Kind Words to our Sunday Schools; and that the State Missionary Quarterly be taken by all of our church members as it will instruct and edify all of our people, both old and young. Be it resolved, that whereas, this Sipsey Baptist Association believe that all illicit distilleries and that all Mormon doctrine and practice is a curse to Christianity, and to the morals of our country, and to all civilization.
